

Townhouse in Castelló d'Empúries

This unique house is the first synagogue that existed in the town of Castelló d'Empúries, located in the heart of the old town.

The house is distributed as follows:

It has an independent apartment on the ground floor with its bathroom, bedroom and kitchen. Approx. 45m².

On the other hand (on the ground floor), the hall of the main house and a spa room with Jacuzzi.

On the first floor we find a toilet, a spacious independent kitchen and a large dining room.

On the second floor there are three bedrooms and a full bathroom.

Finally, at the top is the laundry room and access to a beautiful and spacious terrace with wonderful views of the town and the Empordà plain.

The house is in perfect condition, equipped with gas central heating, double glazed wooden windows and electric shutters. All woodwork (doors and cabinets) is solid cherry.

A house close to all the services of the town such as the center, shops, supermarkets and schools.
