

For sale apartment in Isla de Roses, Santa Margarita, with a wide view

You can really feel at home here!

Someone who bought here a property 42 years ago and 7 years later bought the one next to it, too, needs to know! The decision to sell was not an easy one.

The apartment on the 4th floor of the emblematic building "Isla de Roses" impresses with its simple elegance, not new, but well-kept, cozy.

You come in and feel comfortable.

The entrance hall, bathroom, kitchenette, a large, bright bedroom, and of course the living room with the wonderful view over the Bay of Roses and the sea.

The beautiful balcony, half glazed, half open.

Countless wonderful hours were spent here, you can just feel it.

The view over the pool area makes it possible to either keep an eye on the children or to look forward to a pleasant refreshment yourself. Tennis courts are not missing. Lots of parking options at the house.

The air conditioning ensures a perfect ambience at all temperatures.

If you are looking for an easy-care holiday home where you can enjoy a beautiful view and unwind as soon as you wake up in the morning, appreciate the advantages of large residential complexes with well-kept pools and gardens and the fact that you have nothing to worry about. If you like to watch the boats go by and simply want to become the successor to a family that has appreciated and loved this place for decades, then get in touch.

We are waiting for you!
